

ABOUT THE BRAND

The Tapa Co. is a dharmic lifestyle brand built on one insight: the problem isn't access to rituals, it's access to trusted guidance. Most Indians want to perform their rituals correctly but are caught between fear, confusion, and commercially motivated misinformation.

The brand sits at the intersection of scriptural authenticity and modern accessibility. It is not a puja store. It is not a pandit booking app. It is a knowledge-first, devotion-over-fear platform built on clarity and on the physical and service products that follow from that clarity.

WHAT'S HELD US

Sanatana Dharma has outlasted empires, invasions and centuries of upheaval, not because institutions defended it, but because families carried it.

A grandmother explaining why a vrat is kept. A father at his morning puja before the day begins. Stories told at home that turned out, years later, to have been the real education. This is how it survived. Not in archives. At dinner tables, during daily pujas, watching Ramayana in groups.

WHAT'S BREAKING

That handover is failing, and it is failing fast.

Families have scattered across cities and continents. The elder who once answered the question is a video call away, if at all or no longer there. But the wish to practise hasn't gone anywhere. More people are turning towards their traditions today, not fewer.

They are simply learning them from strangers.

WHAT FILLED THE GAP

Where trusted guidance is missing, confusion becomes easy to sell.

A forwarded message warning what will befall a family that gets a date wrong. A reel that turns a tithi into an emergency. A remedy for every fear, conveniently priced. Slowly, practice starts to feel like a test one might fail and every uncertainty arrives with something to buy attached.

This is not what Dharma teaches. Dharma asked for sincerity, not anxiety. Somewhere in the noise, the simplicity of it got lost.

गलत तिथि पर पूजा-पाठ करने का भयंकर परिणाम

शास्त्रों में स्पष्ट लिखा है कि यदि कोई भी शुभ कार्य, व्रत, पूजा, श्राद्ध, तर्पण या संस्कार गलत तिथि पर किया जाता है, तो उसका फल नष्ट हो जाता है और अशुभ फल की प्राप्ति होती है।

👉 गलत तिथि पर किया गया कार्य:

- ❌ पितरों को कष्ट देता है
- ❌ घर में अशांति लाता है
- ❌ आर्थिक हानि होती है
- ❌ संतान सुख में बाधा आती है
- ❌ रोग, दोष और मानसिक तनाव बढ़ता है
- ❌ कुल पर संकट और दुर्भाग्य आता है

🙏 इसलिए हमेशा किसी योग्य पंडित या प्रमाणित पंचांग से तिथि की पुष्टि करके ही कोई भी धार्मिक कार्य करें।

🔴 एक दिन की भूल, जीवन भर का पछतावा बन सकती है।

📢 इस संदेश को अपने परिवार और मित्रों को अवश्य भेजें ताकि वे भी सतर्क रहें।

🙏 धर्म की रक्षा करें, शास्त्रों का पालन करें 🙏

WHY WE EXIST

The Tapa Co. was founded to give that clarity back.

We help people understand not just what to do, but why it matters, what scripture actually says, what is regional or family custom, and what is only fear wearing tradition's clothes. All three deserve respect. They are not the same thing, and no one should have to guess which is which at eleven at night, alone with a phone.

Devotion doesn't weaken under understanding. It steadies.

WHAT WE'RE BUILDING

- Ritual Guides: the complete vidhi, katha and samagri for a puja, explained and sourced
- Panchang: dates, tithis and vrat calendars, free of fear framing
- Pujan with Purohit: vetted purohits, everything required included
- Ritual Kits: assembled to the ritual, not to a price point

Each one is built so a person can practise with confidence, whether or not there is an elder in the next room.

WHAT WILL NEVER CHANGE

Dharma before business. Scripture before opinion. Knowledge before commerce. Authenticity before convenience.

Fear will never be our marketing strategy.

No individual, institution or company owns Dharma. Each one of us are students before we are builders.

WHO'S BUILDING IT

Founded by Komal Gupta, nineteen years building consumer brands, including ShopClues into the unicorn club, KOOVS from bootstrapped startup to public listing, and Ferns N Petals from a single-market boutique to a $26M business across twelve countries. Before that, a journalist and documentary filmmaker.

Two decades of turning confusion into clarity, now pointed at something that matters more.
